

Link Risk Assurance to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Overview:

To identify the opportunities and responsibilities of internal auditors to accelerate their organizations toward developing sustainable diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) environments.

Course Objectives

- Understand the trends and expectations of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI)
- Explain the value-creating role of internal auditors in facilitating DEI initiatives
- Explain how to assess and monitor DEI risks

Date and Time:

Wednesday, November 9, 2022 – 10:00 – 11:00 AM

Who Will Benefit:

Internal Auditors, Risk Assurance Professionals, and Accounting staff

CPE Logistics

CPE Credit: One (1) hour

Field of Study: Governmental Auditing

Materials: Provided on OSC website

Instructional Delivery Method: Group internet based

Prerequisites: None

Advance Preparation: None

Level: Basic

Webinar Developer: Poole College of Management NC State University

Webinar Sponsor: NC Office of the State Controller

NOTE: There will be NO site administrator or group registrations for this webinar. During the webinar, participants are required to be individually logged on for no less than 50 minutes of the webinar and respond to three polling questions to receive CPE credit. Your time will be tracked to accurately award one (1) hour of CPE credit.

Speaker:

Al Chen, Ph.D., CPA, CISA, CGMA, CMA, CFM

Professor of Accounting at the Poole College of Management, North Carolina State University in Raleigh, NC. Research interests include ERM, internal audit, sustainability performance measurement, and technology automation. Dr. Chen has published in both accounting research and professional journals.

Contact Information: alchen@ncsu.edu.