Date: October 6, 2017

Subject: Now Accepting Nominations for the Annual State Controller's Fiscal Integrity Award

The Office of the State Controller (OSC) will present the Fiscal Integrity Award on December 12, 2017 at the OSC Financial Conference. This award is presented to a state employee or agency that has demonstrated a record of exemplary adherence to the ethical principles of fiscal integrity and honesty, worked to sustain open government, and has an earned reputation for fairness and service to the citizens of the State. This award is intended to acknowledge and express appreciation for an individual or agency within North Carolina State government that inspires or raises ethical standards for State public officials and employees, significantly increases transparency, and inspires personal and professional integrity in State government.

We all know that throughout State government there are countless public servants who are hard-working, honest and ethical and represent our State in the highest way possible. All too often, though, these employees are not recognized for their personal and professional integrity as well as their commitment to doing what's right even in difficult circumstances. That is why I am asking that you (or your designee) nominate an employee from your agency for this recognition by completing the nomination at <https://www.osc.nc.gov/2017-FIAward>.

The deadline to submit the nomination forms to OSC is November 6, 2017. If you have questions, please contact Anne Godwin at 919-707-0650 or anne.godwin@osc.nc.gov.
