

Cal Christian, CPA, PhD

Cal is an Associate Professor of Accounting at East Carolina University teaching both Intermediate Accounting and Principles of Accounting. Cal is a registered CPA in the states of North Carolina and Mississippi and has over 10 years of experience in both the public accounting profession with the former international accounting firm of Ernst & Whinney in Houston, TX and Jackson, MS, and in industry with LDDS (the predecessor to WorldCom) and the Mississippi law firm of Holcomb, Dunbar. Cal has his PhD from Florida State University and his BA from the University of Mississippi.

In addition to teaching continuing education courses for the NCACPA, Cal also teaches and writes courses for the AICPA, CPA firms and publicly traded companies and has been recognized as a NCACPA Outstanding Chapter Speaker, NCACPA Outstanding Conference Speaker and a NCACPA Outstanding Discussion Leader. ECU has honored Cal with a College of Business Teaching Fellowship, The UNC Board of Governor's Outstanding Teaching Award, and The College of Business ECU Scholar/Teacher award.