

Michael Euliss is the Director of Communications, Government Relations, and Training for the North Carolina Office of the State Controller. Mr. Euliss is also a motivational teacher and holds numerous nationally recognized certifications in training, teaching, and organizational health. He has provided educational events to hundreds of governmental, church, corporate, and civic groups across North America to help them develop a culture of servant leadership and displace ineffective and autocratic leadership practices.

He is internationally recognized for practical but powerful motivational and inspirational learning experiences. His expertise is in leadership development, public and interpersonal communication skills, strategic direction, and group dynamics. He uses a variety of methods to equip today's leaders with the tools they need to excel and make others around them better.

He has been featured as a guest speaker at hundreds of venues in almost every state in the US. His other appearances include many television and radio shows, the Texas Ministry Conference, the Christian Management Association Annual Convention, WFX, the Social Security Administration, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Trainer's Association, and the Institute for Church Leadership.

Mr. Euliss has experiences in the corporate world as well as the public sector. He is retired from local government after 20 years and served in executive management in the private sector for 10 years before founding a non-profit organization focused on leadership development where he served for seven years. He is the author of Advanced Church Leadership, On Eagle's Wings - Developing the Leader in You, as well as Developing the Leader in You for Law Enforcement Professionals and created the BulletProof™ Initiative for the encouragement of public servants across America.

He has been married to his high-school sweetheart since 1984 and is the father of three children and a grandfather of three. He resides with his family in North Carolina.
