

Laura Klem has served the Office of the State Controller (OSC) since 2013; as of November 1, 2022, she is the Accounting and Financial Reporting Manager in Statewide Accounting Division. In this role, she manages the accounting and reporting staff, which is responsible for promoting fiscal responsibility by providing accounting, financial reporting, and internal controls for the various state agencies and institutions and ensuring that generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) are properly interpreted and implemented. At OSC, she has also worked on the Financial Backbone Replacement project as the ACFR Lead for release 2 and as an analyst in the Statewide Accounting Division and the Audit, Risk and Compliance Division. Prior to coming to OSC, Laura worked in auditing, four years at the Office of the State Auditor and two years at the Wake County Revenue Department.

Laura received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from N.C. State University and a Master's in Trust and Wealth and Management from Campbell University. She is currently a licensed certified public accountant in North Carolina.
